

Fifty series
Resurrection and Life
Message Text: John 11:17-37
February 6/7, 2010

Jesus has been our all-sufficient source for 50 years and He will continue to be so as we forge ahead.

Grief and Belief

Anger and Grief

Reversing the Irreversible

Jesus is all sufficient because of His identity not because of His activity.

Go Deeper:

- 1) Read John 11:1-7. How is Jesus response to the news about Lazarus not what you would expect? Why do you think he responds as he does (see v. 4)?
- 2) Read John 11:21-24. How does Martha's response reveal that she is missing Jesus point? How is Martha's misunderstanding of Jesus message much like some of our own misunderstandings?
- 3) How would you explain Jesus' words in John 11:25-26 to someone else?
- 4) How does Jesus reaction of anger and grief make his response that much more genuine? Is His response a source of comfort for you?
- 5) Look over the entire passage, John 11:1-44, how many times does it refer to the love between Jesus and Lazarus, Mary, and Martha? Why do you think this is stressed?
- 6) How does Jesus manifest His love for this family?
- 7) What is the glory of God? (see v.40) Why would Jesus want us to see it? Why would we want to see it?
- 8) Which is more important, Jesus' activity or His identity? Why?
- 9) Which receives greater emphasis among "Christians" today? Why?
- 10) Why do you think Jesus is more concerned about our faith resting in His identity rather than his displays of the power of God? (see v.45-48)

Next Steps:

- Memorize John 11:25-26.
- I will set aside a block of time this week to just reflect on who Jesus is through His names. (If you need a list one can be found at: <http://www.apuritansmind.com/christianwalk/mcmahonnamesofjesus.htm>)
- I have some issues of unbelief that I need to lay at the feet of Jesus, please pray with me that I will let His resurrection life into these dead areas of my life.
